

Contents

ANNOUNCEMENTS	2
CONFERENCE 2022
Back to the Coast 2022: The Porcupine Marine Natural History Society Annual Conference Liz Morris-Webb	4
AGM MINUTES	8
ACCOUNTS	11
FIELD TRIPS
North Wales field trip: 19th March 2022 Paul Brazier	12
Porcupine shore visit Blackwaterfoot, west coast Isle of Arran: 19 March 2022 Lucy Kay	18
CONFERENCE PAPERS
Measuring the biodiversity of West Runton intertidal rocky shore; a unique habitat on the Norfolk coast Elizabeth Beston	22
Shoresearch: An Engaging Citizen Science Solution to Poor Baseline Data	28
Navigating Nomenclature in the World of WoRMS (World Register of Marine Species) Tammy Horton	33
OBITUARIES
In Memory: Frederick Richard Woodward (1939–2020) Vicki Howe	37
Frederick Richard Woodward (1939–2020)	38
Matthew Davison (1983–2021) Matt Green	42
SHORT ARTICLES
Creating a Marine INNS kit for Wales Anna Holmes & Katherine Slade	44
A comprehensive guide to the terminology and identification of shovel head worms (Annelida: Magelonidae) Abbie Taylor & Kate Mortimer	50
Tales of gorgeous gobies, one with a grizzly ending! Paul Naylor	52
Porcupine does Lundy Teresa Darbyshire	55
REVIEWS
Review of British Phycological Society seaweed identification course, Plymouth May 2022 Paul Brazier	62
Guide to lionfish management in the Mediterranean – Kleitou et al. Report Review by Paul Brazier	64
How I became a marine biologist? Beccy MacDonald-Lofts	65