

Notice on Personal Data, Consent and Processing.

1. The personal data the Society collects from a Member, as requested by the Society's membership application form, includes a Member's title, name and contact details, and mailing address.
2. By completing and submitting an application form, the relevant Member consents to the Society collecting, processing and using that Member's personal data as provided by that Member in the application form, for the following purposes;
 - providing that Member with the benefits of membership;
 - processing payments, billing, and notifying that Member of their membership renewal;
 - sending that Member any communication and/or documentation which they are entitled to receive from time to time, in their capacity as a member, pursuant to any legal or contractual requirement imposed on the Society from time to time, including without limitation, notices of general meetings (including Annual General Meetings) and all supporting documentation in connection with any general meeting;
3. To the extent that a Member, by ticking the relevant boxes in the application form, consents to the same, that a Member's personal data as provided by that Member in the application form will be collected, processed and used by the Society for the following purposes;
 - providing that Member with email alerts about the Society's activities;
 - sending that Member copies of the Society's Bulletin;
4. Withholding and Withdrawing Consent. A Member may at any time;
 - withdraw their consent to any or all of the types of processing described by contacting the Society at membership@pmnhs.co.uk (and specifying clearly what that Member wants the Society to do);
 - and/or request that the Society permanently delete any or all of that Member's personal data held by the Society;
5. Disclosure. The Society will disclose a Member's personal data to third parties if the Society is under a duty to disclose or share that personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection, credit risk reduction and any other legal requirement imposed on the Society to disclose personal data about that Member, or about Members generally.
6. Geographical Scope. The Society will not transfer, store or process the personal data that it collects from a Member at a destination outside the European Economic Area
7. Duration. The Society will keep and process a Member's personal data throughout that person's membership application process, and for as long as that person remains a Member.
8. Any payment details the Society holds for a Member will only be kept for as long as required to process the payment for which they were provided, following which, such personal data will be deleted.
9. Right to Access or Correct Personal Data. A Member may request electronic or hard copies of the personal information the Society holds about that Member, by emailing the Society at membership@pmnhs.co.uk. A Member has the right to request this information in a structured portable electronic format. The Society will provide this information free of charge. If the information the Society holds about a Member is inaccurate, incomplete or out-dated, that Member should inform the Society and provide the corrected or updated information by emailing the Society.
